JAMES DEFEATS ZINN IN DRIVING CONTEST

Third Day of Old Dominion Tennis Tournament
Brings Out Largest Gallery Yet to Witness
Some Dashing and Brilliant Playing by Stars of Courts.

R. L. James and George Zinn furnished the class of the sport offered in the third day's trials of the Old Dominion tennis tournament at the Country Club yesterday, and a larger gallery than has yet been present enjoyed every minute of the play. James finally winning. Carded as the last event of the evening, not one single soul budged one inch until James had come from under a 5-2 score and won the last and final set. Not that Zinn failed to measure up to his previous standards. He did, but was worn down by the dash and vim of his really superior opponent. Zinn's service won for him every name which goes to his credit. His first ball came over in a tantalizing manner, which has even the redoubtable James guessing at not frequent intervals.

While, from a spectacular standpoint, the James-Zinn match heads the list, still the performance of Thornton, of Atlanta, one time holder of the Southern championship title, and Hall, of Lynchburg, divided the gallery down to the ground. The Atlanta took the first set after some of the most brilliant, yet consistent, tennis ever witnessed on any local court. The Lynchburger started a rally in the second set, wore down his stockier opponent, who was doubtless saving his energies for the last and deciding encounter, and won by the same score, before which he bowed in the initial go. The last set was won in fast fashion by the champion.

It now looks as if the championship would lie between Thornton and James, and the mixup of these two is eagerly anticipated. James is unquestionably the more dashing and brilliant player. He slams into the ball not always with accuracy, it is true, but at times with such force as to take his opponent off his feet. Thornton, on the other hand, is methodical at all times, playing the corners well, with a wicked service. He handles drives with accuracy and sureness, and his one weakness seems to be going after long, trailing, frequent gauging his distances and netting the ball on seemingly easy tries.

Interest in the sport is at its highest point, from a local standpoint right now. Notwithstanding the fact that some of the stars notably Hall and Palmer, failed to show up, the galleries have been larger than in the eight years of the tournament. It is expected that the women's singles, men's singles and possibly the mixed doubles will be completed to-day. The summary follows:

Singles—Thornton beat Hall, 6-3, 3-6, 7-5. Robt. beat Oglesby, 1-6, 6-2, 7-5. Tyler beat Du Bray, 8-6, 6-1; James beat Zinn, 6-3, 7-5; Page beat Trigg, 6-4, 6-0.

Doubles—Gaines and Page beat Carey and Blair, 6-0, 6-0; Zinn and McIntosh beat James and Hills, 4-6, 6-1, 6-4; Adams and Thornton beat Bennett and Trigg, 6-0, 6-1; Dunn and Buford beat Hosteller and Lipscomb, 6-6, 6-1, 6-1; Smith and Tyler beat Brossian and Davidson, 6-1, 6-8, 6-2.

Women's singles—Mrs. J. D. Taylor beat Miss Caroline Preston, 6-0, 6-0; Miss Meredith beat Miss Jones, 4-6, 6-2, 6-3; Mrs. Hardy beat Miss Powers, 6-2, 6-2; Miss Colston beat Miss Suttin, 6-1, 6-0, 6-4.

Women's doubles—Miss Jones and Miss Powers beat Miss Robinson and Miss Lancaster, 6-4, 6-3; Miss Hardy and Miss Meredith beat Miss Colston and Miss Colston, 6-3, 6-1; Miss Dunning and Miss Leeson beat Miss Sibbrough and Miss Parrish, 6-0, 6-0.

The annual meeting of the Alumni Association was called to order in the chapel by President J. E. Messick. The annual address was delivered by Dr. George B. Booker, of Petersburg, on "Crises in Life." The speaker was interrupted by frequent bursts of applause. Immediately following the address came the contest for the Sutherland medal for oratory, participated in by W. S. Long, of Franklin Literary Society, who spoke on "An Examen of Reform"; E. A. Burgess, of Washington Literary Society, on "Conservation in Virginia"; and E. M. Wray, Washington Literary Society, on "The Social Problem."

The winner of the medal was announced to-morrow. At 2 o'clock in the gymnasium luncheon was served to the trustees, alumni and their friends. Dr. S. C. Hatcher acted as toastmaster, and short speeches were made by President Blackwell, Chancellor W. W. Smith, of Woodstock; Professor E. S. Sumner Smith, of Bedford City; Professor J. A. Messick, of Auburn, Ala.; Rev. Graham Lambeth, of Richmond; Coach Warren and J. A. Chapman, of the senior class.

Following the luncheon, the business meeting of the Alumni Association was held.

TRUSTEES SERVED WITH INJUNCTION

Executive Committee Authorized to Take Entire Charge of Litigation.

Ashland, Va., June 12.—At the morning session of the board of trustees of Randolph-Macon College the injunction issued by Judge Scott was formally served, restraining the trustees from carrying into effect their resolution of October 5, 1911, in regard to the manner of election of trustees. A hearing on the injunction will be held on the first Monday in July before Judge Chichester at Hanover, Courthouse. The executive committee was authorized to take entire charge of the matter and to prepare an answer to the injunction.

The trustees confirmed the nominations of the faculty in regard to conferring the degree of doctor of divinity on the following: Rev. T. A. Smoot, of Epworth Church, Norfolk; Rev. John T. Bosman, of Court Street Church, Portsmouth; Rev. M. S. Colonna, presiding elder of the Charlottesville District; Rev. H. H. Sherman, of Alexandria; and Rev. H. M. Canter, of Alexandria.

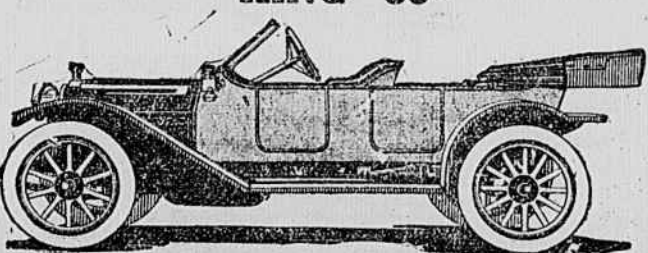

The degree of doctor of laws was

S.S.S. MAKES A LASTING CURE

Not only its proven ability to cure, but its absolute safety as a remedy, has made S.S.S. the most extensively used of all medicines in the treatment of Contagious Blood Poison. Unlike the strong mineral mixtures which temporarily remove the outward symptoms and shut the disease up in the system, there to carry on its destructive work on the delicate and vital organs, S.S.S. strikes directly at the root, and by purifying the blood of every trace of the virus, completely and permanently cures the trouble. S.S.S. is Nature's blood purifier, harmless in its action and certain in its results. It is made from a combination of roots and herbs, each of which has a definite and specific action in purifying the blood. Years were spent in selecting and proportioning the different ingredients, but when S.S.S. was perfected it soon demonstrated its superiority over all other blood medicines, and now, after 40 years, it is still the one and only certain cure for Contagious Blood Poison. While driving out the poison from the circulation S.S.S. builds up and strengthens the system by its fine vegetable tonic effects. If you are suffering with Contagious Blood Poison S.S.S. is your most certain reliance, and because of its freedom from mercury, opium or any other mineral, it is absolutely safe for every one. VIRGINIA LEAGUE BACK TO SIX CLUBS

Danville and Lynchburg Dropped
From Circuit at Meeting of Directors.

Norfolk, Va., June 12.—The directors of the Virginia Baseball League, at a meeting that did not adjourn until 1 o'clock this morning, voted to drop Lynchburg and Danville from the league and return to a six-club circuit.

Hughes, W. Va., and Suffolk submitted propositions to take the franchise surrendered by Danville, but both were refused. A meeting will be held to-morrow morning to draft a new playing schedule, which will not become effective until next Monday.

The new circuit will be composed of Norfolk, Richmond, Portsmouth, Newport News, Petersburg and Roanoke. Each club was required to pay $175 to the league to pay back salaries due players on the Danville team.

of a wreck, and traffic was completely paralyzed between Lynchburg and Charlottesville, on the Washington division. No one was injured, but thirteen freight cars were so badly broken and piled up that traffic was not restored until late to-day.

McFadden Accepts Appointment.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Lynchburg, Va., June 12.—Rev. George H. McFadden, since last November pastor of Rivermont Avenue Methodist Church, this morning was notified of his unanimous election as special representative of the Virginia Conference of Ministers, which is located at Richmond, and shortly thereafter he declined to accept the work.

Reading has been dropped from the circuit, and only five cities were definitely allotted membership—Pittsburgh, Baltimore, Richmond, Chicago, St. Louis. The sixth place is still undecided, and lies between Cincinnati and Cleveland.

The chances are much in favor of Cincinnati being selected, as it was announced at the meeting that that city would meet all the requirements of the new organization. The meeting was attended by representatives of the cities which will be included in the reorganization of the league on a six-club basis, with the exception of St. Louis, Otto Steffel, the wealthy brewer, being unable to attend on account of his duties as manager of the Taft campaign in Missouri. It was said, however, that word was received from Steffel that he was ready to take up the St. Louis proposition, and was anxious to have that city represented in the reorganized league. Accordingly, St. Louis was listed as one of the cities in the new circuit.

Reading's representatives were not present, and as that city was considered a "small town stumbling block" it was decided to declare that city out of the league.

Cincinnati and Cleveland are both anxious to remain, but as neither could show to-day the required guarantee of $10,000 it was left or one of them to make good the guarantee in ten days. The franchise likely will go to the city which first responds with the money backing. The guarantee must come to President Henderson within ten days.

Morgan R. Mills, one of the backers of the Richmond club, lent much encouragement to the migrants when he announced that business men of that city had completed the guarantee and would do all in their power to make the new league a success.

President Henderson to-night said:

"I feel assured now that the United States League will go through the season, and that all the clubs will make some money. I favored a six-club league because present conditions, with the baseball season well advanced, would not justify a general reorganization on an eight-club basis. The five cities definitely decided upon at the meeting to-day will stick, and so will the sixth, whether it be Cincinnati or Cleveland. Both are good ball towns, and I am sure there will be no trouble when the guarantee is required. This will be within the next ten days, and it will then be for the directors to decide which city shall have the franchise."

It is that time the new schedule will be ready for adoption, and there will be no time lost in getting down to business and again have the league going as it should be going. We have the structure for a good, permanent organization, and were is no doubt now that it will be formed. I believe the six-club plan for the remainder of this season is a wise one, and I anticipate at the annual meeting held after the close of the season that eight clubs will be included in the circuit.

Byword question, the United States League will be confined to the cities of the Middle West. By that I mean that most of the cities will be from that section of the country next season, with the farthest Eastern point at Richmond.

LACK JUST ONE CLUB FOR REORGANIZATION

U. S. League Magnates Give Franchise to St. Louis, Baltimore, Richmond, Pittsburgh and Chicago--Both Cleveland and Cincinnati Want to Join, but Must Show $10,000 First--Given Ten Days to Decide--Prospects Bright.

Pittsburgh, Pa., June 12.—Following a meeting of the magnates of the United States Baseball League held this evening in the Colonial Hotel, Captain Marshall Henderson announced that the league with a revised schedule would finish the season with six clubs.

Reading has been dropped from the circuit, and only five cities were definitely allotted membership—Pittsburgh, Baltimore, Richmond, Chicago, St. Louis. The sixth place is still undecided, and lies between Cincinnati and Cleveland.
